FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Taking Positions: Participating in FAN does not require agreement on every issue. We are a diverse network with diverse perspectives.

Financial Commitments: FAN depends on financial support for our ongoing work, each according to their means.

Tax Status: 501(C)(3) organizations, including faith communities, are permitted to engage in advocacy, hosting of candidates' forums when all candidates are invited, encouragement of voter participation, and endorsement of initiatives, among other activities. They may not endorse candidates for public office. Partnering with FAN will not jeopardize 501(C)(3) status as we observe these rules.

Lobbying: FAN works for justice in a variety of ways. We do speak directly to government officials as one of the ways we advocate, within IRS limits.
